THE FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America, by making experiments, such as testing milk, as pictured above, live up to their motto: "Learning to do, Doing to learn, Earning to live, Living to serve."

F.F.A. YOUTH FAIR

One of the most outstanding events of the year was the youth fair which featured calves, pigs, chickens, and grass. Curtis Rumbo and Ray Starek won top honors for their beef cattle. Herschel Lester (pictured above) won prizes on his chickens.

F.F.A. CLUB MEETING

Standing in front of the new F. F.A. building are a few of the club members. Capably leading this organization are the following officers: Curtis Rumbo, president; Gene Ferguson, vice-president; Raymond Jakubik, secretary; George Hejny, reporter; Joe Kostak, treasurer; Bobby Nash, sental; and H.T. Lester, advisor.

F.F.A. CLASS MEETING

Mr. Lester, sponsor and teacher, is demonstrating to the boys the pasturization of milk. These and other activities are a portion of the regular F.F.A. curriculum.

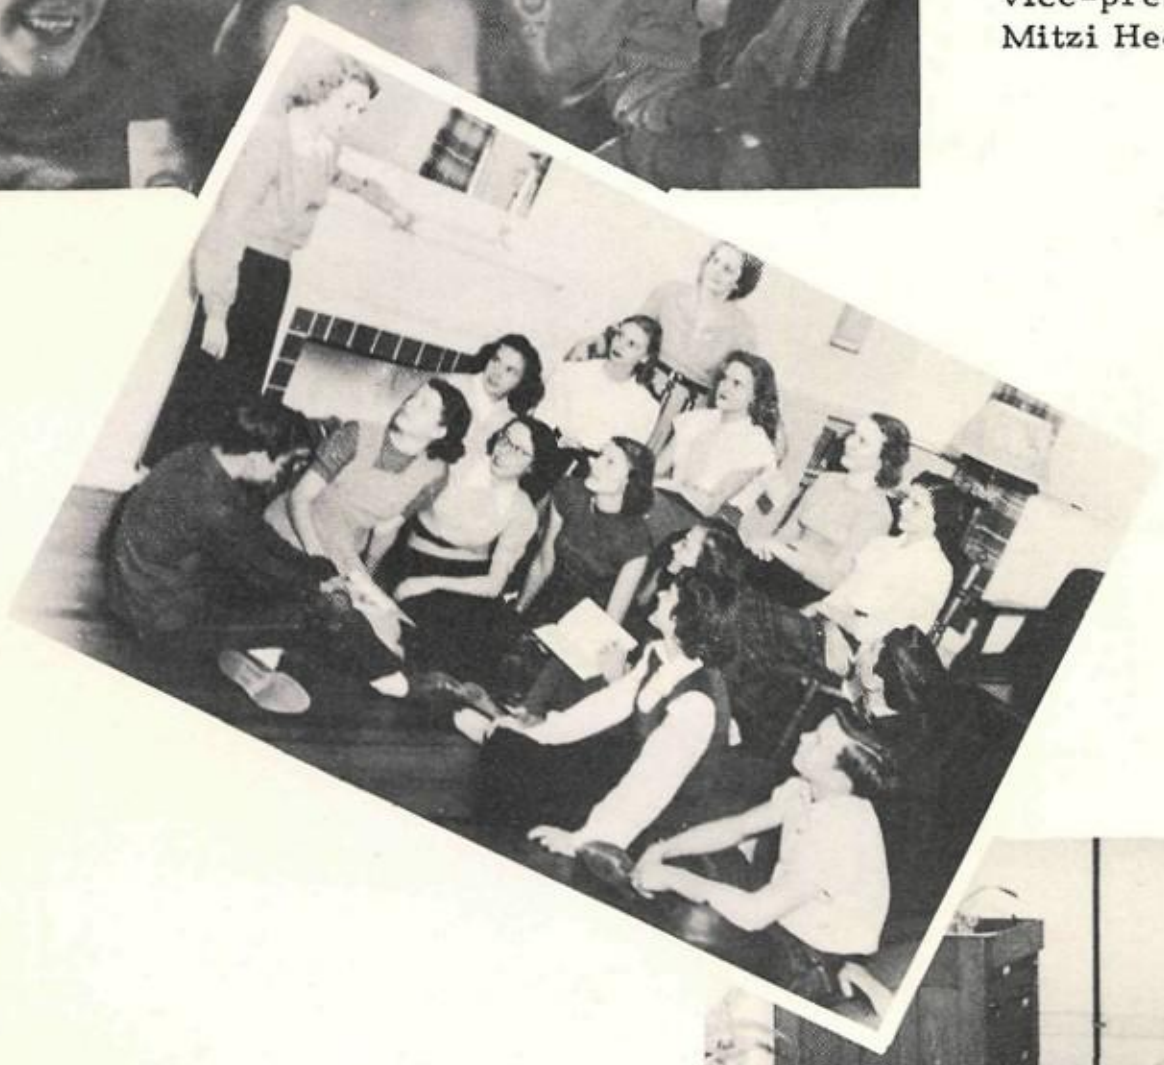
Clubs

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Under the leadership of its sponsors, Mrs. Maurine Overall and Miss Mary Walker, the F.H.A. club has participated in many interesting activities including the Valentine Dance, and the hayride, honoring the beau, Par Towb.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Loaded in a bus and ready to leave for the State Fair of Texas are these F.H.A. girls. Planning the affairs of the club are Jane McBrierty, president; Nancy Jane Dodd, vice-president; Ann Reed, secretary; and Mitzi Hedrick, reporter.



THE STORY LEAGUE

"Character building through story-telling" is the motto of this active club who listens intently to an interesting "tale". Officers include Beverly Harper, president; Florence Ramsey, vice-president; Sally Jo Pannill, secretary; Macie Ann Green, reporter; and Mrs. J.C. Oglesby, sponsor.

PEN, PENCIL AND BRUSH CLUB

Ready for a bicycle ride are freshman class officers Bobbie Dale Ware, James Thomason, Gloria Morales, Darleen Hutchinson, and Danny Rogers.

The freshman class, composed of only sixty-eight members, is the smallest group to have entered Ennis High School in many years. These students are looking forward to their sophomore year when they will be striving to overcome their minority in numbers.

The class was under the leadership of sponsors Mrs. J. C. Oglesby and Mr. Forrest Hendricks and class officers James Thomason, president; Bobbie Dale Ware, vice-president; Gloria Morales, secretary; Darleen Hutchinson, treasurer; and Danny Rogers, reporter. Mike Kelly and Gloria Morales met regularly with the student council as freshman representatives.

Mike Kelly and John Waedekin represented their class on the football team, and they also were seen on the cinder path in the spring track activities.

Cheering the Lions to victory was freshman cheer leader, Ruth Tucker. In the band were several ninth grade students--Dale Stovall, Hubert Vick, Billy Jo Lowey, and Jesse Woods.

Manifesting a loyalty to worthwhile activities, this class was the first in the high school to receive a 100% rating in the Junior Red Cross roll call. Outstanding occasions which these students will never forget were their Christmas party and spring picnic.

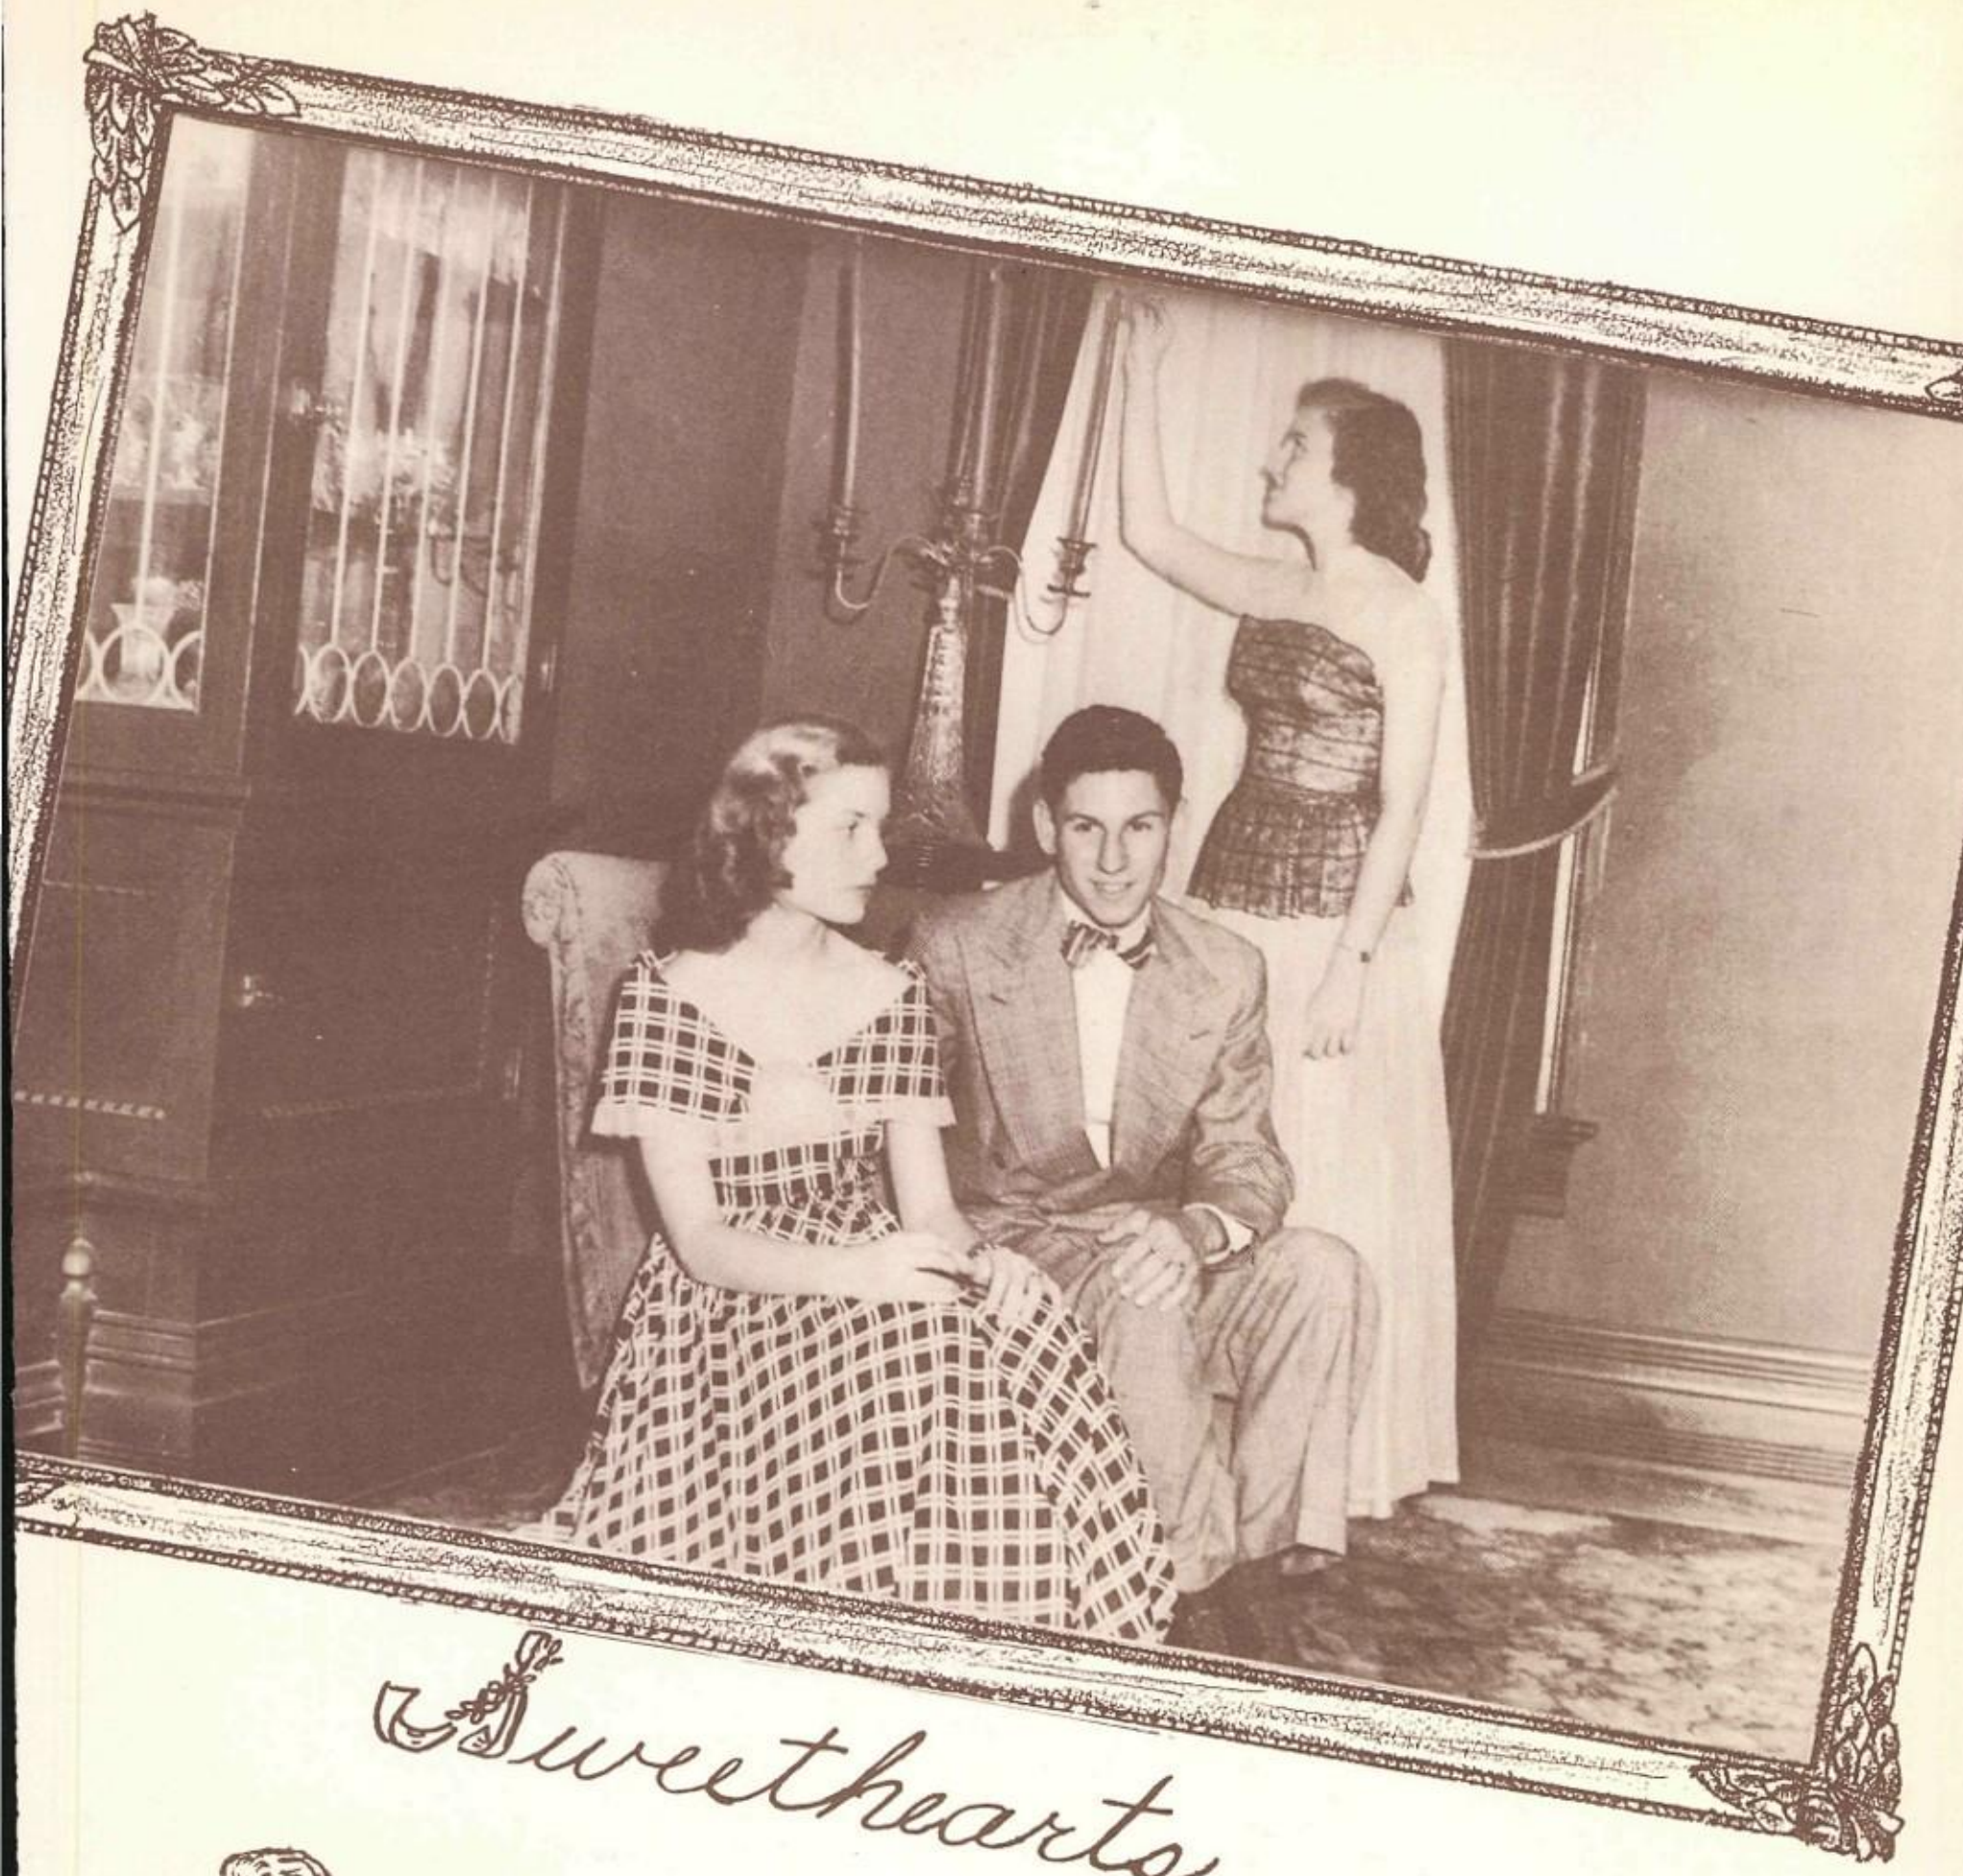
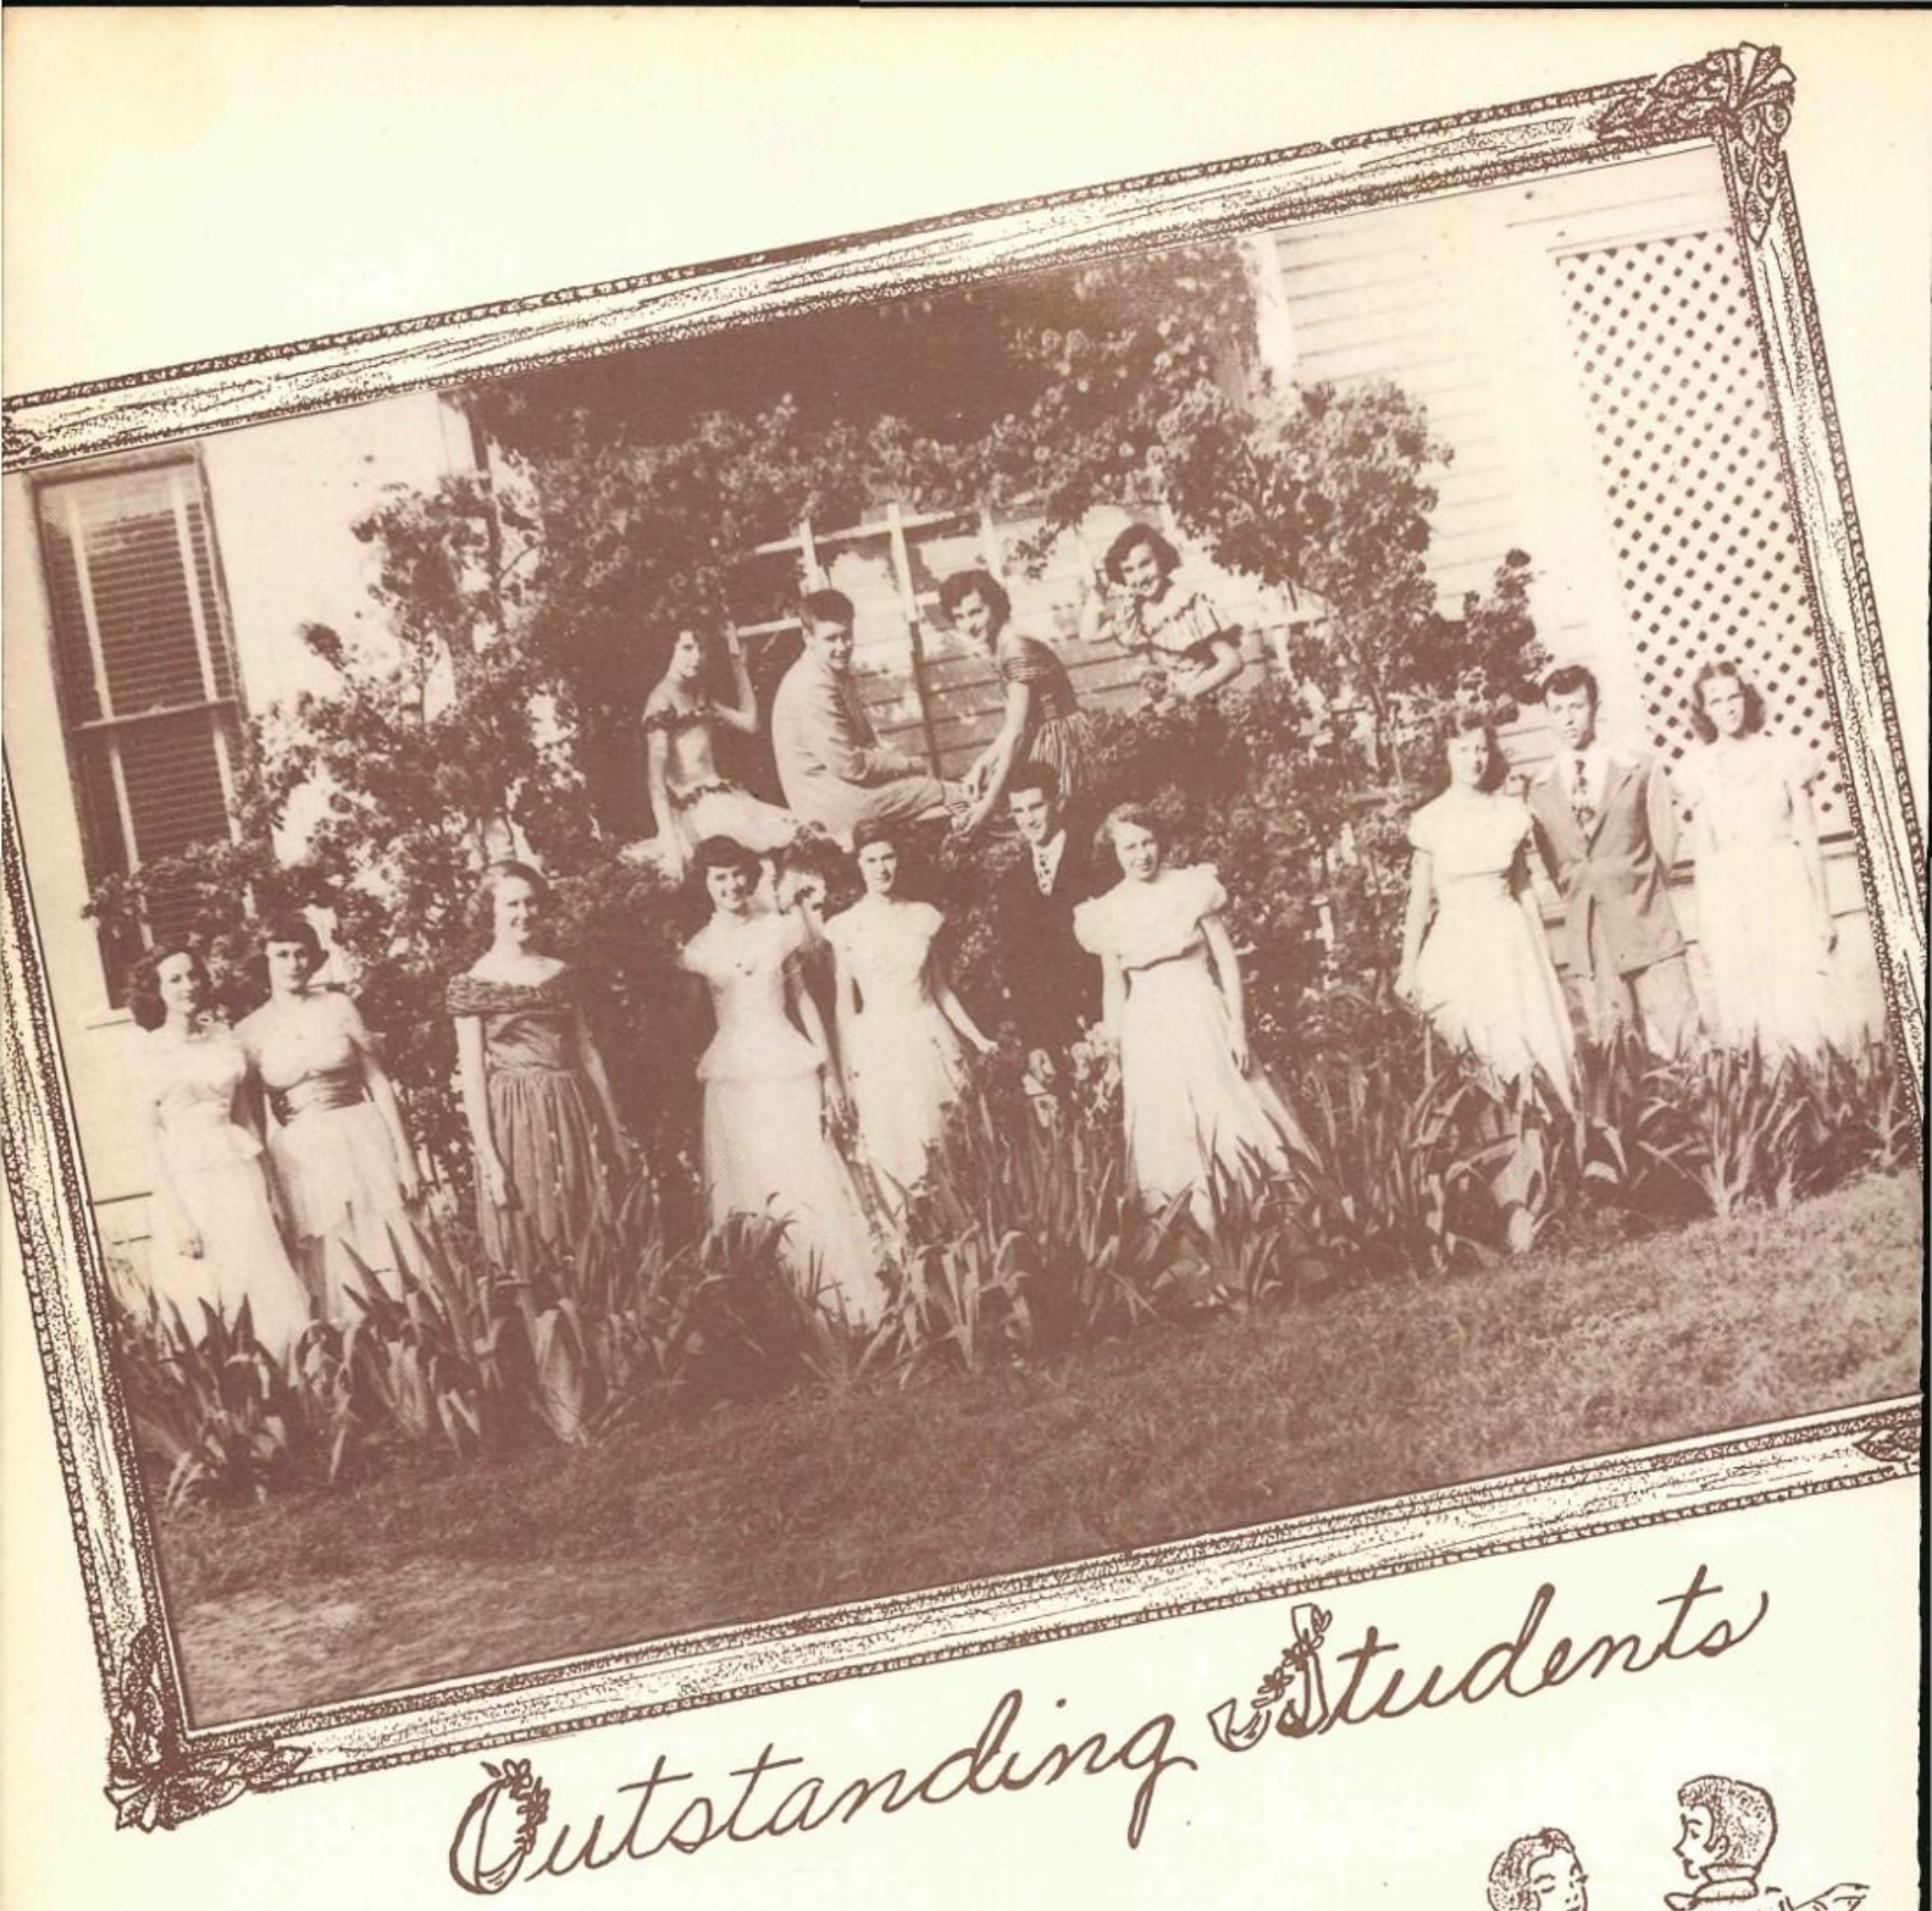
Runners-Up

Winning distinctive honors were the six students who were in the run-off election for individual recognition in the favorite section of the Cicerone. Chosen by popular vote of the student body, runners-up included Robert Gray, Best Citizen nominee; Doris Tucker, Freshman Class Favorite; Neil Duncan, Best Looking Boy; Iweeta Cox, Best Girl Citizen; Borah Newlin, Best Boy Citizen; and Ann Muirhead, Most Attractive Girl.



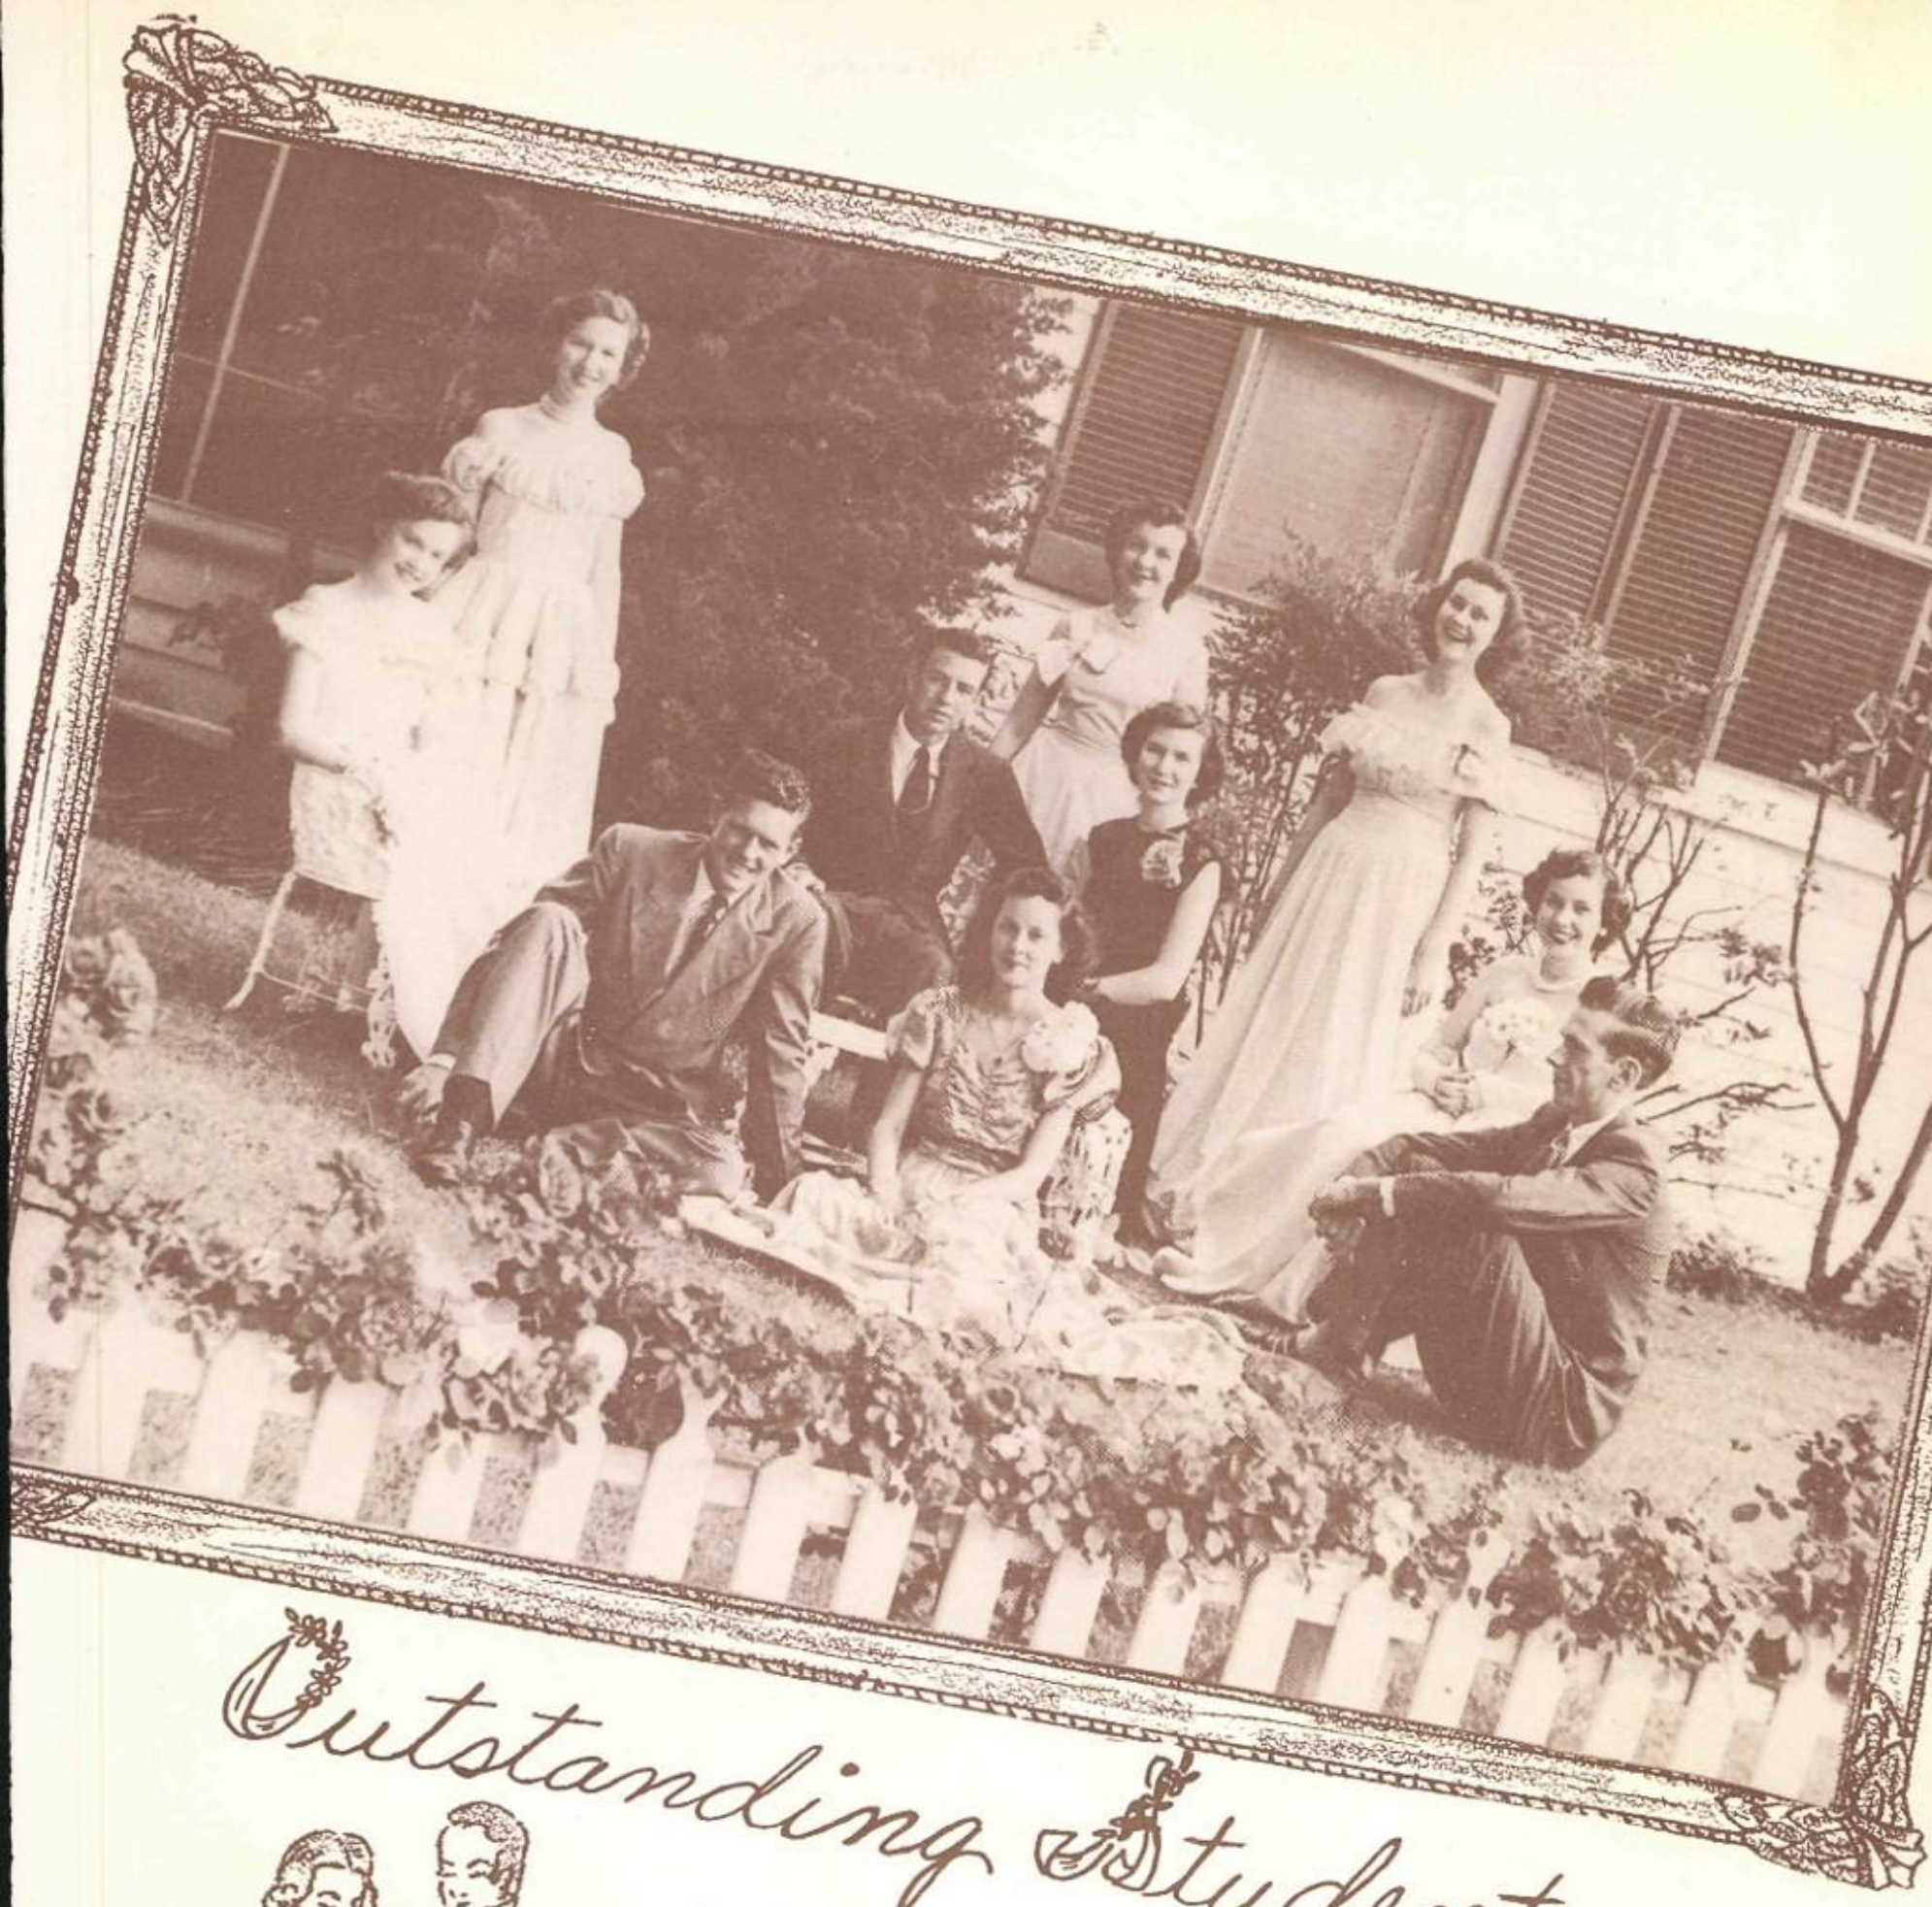
Sweethearts

Elected by popular vote of the band, Stella Jean Farris has served as Band Sweetheart throughout the school year. Par Towb, a senior, was selected by the Future Homemakers' Club as their Beau; he was honored with a hayride and picnic. The Future Farmers chose as their sweetheart Ann Reed, a sophomore, who was honored at all formal F. F. A. activities.



Outstanding Students

Because of their various worthwhile contributions to student life, these underclassmen are recognized as outstanding belles and beaus: Beverly Harper, Patricia McEver, Mary Frances Grant, Dian Hawkins, Shirley Tims, John Thomas Purcell, Judy Leatherman, Mary E. Cooke, Adolph Miller, Dorothy Vavra, La Fern Horan, Joe Bob Walker, Jane McBrierty, and Gloria Martin.



Outstanding Students

Ten seniors from Ennis High School were chosen as outstanding Belles and Beaus of 1949. Demonstrating their leadership, service, and a loyal school spirit are Bettye Wood, Bettie Spencer, Herschel Lester, Daniel Emmert, Jane Bell, Bobbie Spencer, Mary Nell Wood, Margaret Hodge, Ann Glaspy, and Curtis Rumbo.

Honor Graduates

One boy and nine girl graduates were recognized for their high scholastic averages. Each of these students maintained an average of ninety percent or more during theirsenior year. The three top-ranking seniors with a two-year average of ninety-five percent or more were Mary Nell Wood, valedictorian; Iweeta Cox, salutatorian; and Ann Glaspy. Pictured, left to right, are Mary Nell Wood, Iweeta Cox, Marie Grizzard, Margaret Hodge, Jane Bell, Wynelle Smith, Margaret Hunter, Robert Gray, and Ann Glaspy. Bobbie Nell Shelton is not pictured.

Club Representatives

The Kiwanis Club and the Business and Professional Women's Club recognize one outstanding senior at each of their periodic meetings. The nine student Kiwanians include Joe Kostak, Bobbie Nash, Daniel Emmert, Robert Gray, John L. Hinkle, Herschel Lester, Borah Newlin, Duane Potter, and Roger Haynes (not pictured). The three Little Sisters of the B-PW Club are Wynelle Smith, Margaret Hodge, and Jane Bell.

Student Assistants
